A Note from our Interim Principal, Mrs. Nguyen:

Dear parents,

This is the 2nd week of Lent. Let us contemplate and ask ourselves a question: what conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of us?

Thank you for entrusting us to educate your students in faith and love; however, we do need your support for your students at home. Here are some suggestions: praying together, having dinner together, surrounding them with an atmosphere of learning by limiting online time and social media, and at night, taking the smart devices from your students to ensure they have at least 9 hours of sleep a day.

God bless,
Mrs. Nguyen

Assurance Statement of Compliance with the purposes of Title IX Education Act

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and at the direction of the Superintendent, attest that none of the Catholic schools discriminates on the basis of sex in its admission policies, its treatment of students or its employment practices.

Notice of Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Denver, under the jurisdiction of Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.I. and at the direction of the Superintendent, state that all of their Catholic schools admit students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the schools. Furthermore, Archdiocesan schools admit handicapped students in accord with the policy on Admissions in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools Administrator's Manual. These schools do not discriminate on the basis of race, age, handicap, color, national or ethnic origin in the administration of their educational policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, or athletic or other school administered programs.
